In the original publication of this article [1], the author wanted to correct the ‘XXX University Hospital’ in below two sentences. The ‘XXX University Hospital’ should be the ‘Hanyang University Hospital’.

1. ‘A 45-year-old male patient visited the emergency room in XXX University Hospital with right facial spasms, tingling and twisting of the right arm, paresthesia, and dysarthria. The original publication has been corrected.’
2. ‘The patient was sent to the Department of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery in XXX University Hospital on day 41 for consultation.’
